MORE THAN JUST A DAY

We know that our children need positive role models to help them successfully navigate through each day. When fathers play these active roles alongside mothers, children tend to be more confident, earn better grades and exhibit healthier behavior. Dads Take Your Child to School Day is a statewide initiative designed to spotlight the importance of parental involvement in a child's education.

We would like to invite all of our families to our "Dads Take Your Child To School" breakfast on September 27, 2017 from 7:30-8:30am*.

We encourage all fathers and father figures to take their children to school and stay for breakfast and interactive games/activities with your child. Although the event is centered on fathers, all father figures- including stepfathers, grandfathers, uncles, and cousins, and mothers are welcome.
